

TITLE: Functions of the Senior High School (Grades 9,10,11,12)
State Board of Education Ref: 2100; 2442.2

1. To continue to develop the interests, attitudes, and capabilities necessary for effective citizenship in a democratic society.
2. To continue to develop an interest and desire to search for knowledge, truth, and understanding.
3. To continue to improve the skills for effective speaking and writing the English language.
4. To continue to develop and improve the skills for efficient reading for every need and purpose.
5. To continue to improve the skills and understandings necessary for solving problems involving mathematics.
6. To continue to improve the skills and habits for keen observation and careful listening for considered judgement.
7. To continue to improve and broaden understanding of the sciences and their relationship to man and his world.
8. To continue to broaden knowledge in history, geography, social, and economic field for more enlightened citizenship.
9. To continue to improve and broaden understandings of foreign language and cultures and skills of communication in one foreign language.
10. To continue to develop and improve skills, understanding and desires for physical fitness, personal, and community health.
11. To continue to improve and develop interests and skills in the vocational arts.
12. To develop interests and skills in the home arts.
13. To continue to improve and develop interests, understandings, and talents in music, art, and dramatics.
14. To provide experiences in the mastery of skills that are essential in securing employment and earning a living.