

TITLE: Audio-Visual Materials
State Board of Education Ref: 2320

These materials are purchased either by the school or through federal or state monies. These materials are housed in the individual schools and logged in the library. Teachers are responsible for checking out and returning these materials for inventory at the end of each school year. Audio-visual materials should not be removed from the school grounds unless permission is granted by the building principal.